Dear Faculty, Staff, and Students:

My recent monthly update was a chance for me to let you in on some of the things that I have been hearing while also highlighting some of the stories from around campus that make us all proud. This month, I wanted to take this opportunity to update you on a few personnel updates, to share some stories about our faculty and staff, and to look forward to signing day and how we will celebrate our athletes.

First, I want to share an update about one of our KSU police officers, Rusty Midkiff. While on duty last weekend, Officer Midkiff assisted the Cobb County Police Department by partnering with Team IMPACT to help make a little girl’s dream come true. It is truly a special story and demonstrates the best of Kennesaw State. Thanks, Officer Midkiff, for your service.

Last week, I had the honor of participating in Law Enforcement Appreciation Day to recognize the hard work and dedication of the men and women who work to help keep us safe. It is, perhaps, fitting that I share a story with you about one of our KSU police officers, Rusty Midkiff. While on duty last weekend, Officer Midkiff assisted the Cobb County Police Department by partnering with Team IMPACT to help make a little girl’s dream come true. It is truly a special story and demonstrates the best of Kennesaw State. Thanks, Officer Midkiff, for your service.

Recently, I had the opportunity to follow up on my message to campus this week regarding the executive order on immigration. As I noted in my message on Monday, I understand that there are many questions, so know that we are closely monitoring this evolving situation, and we will continue to keep you updated.

On a slightly different note, please take a moment to read the story below about how our women’s basketball team and coach Agnus Berenato partnered with Team IMPACT to help make a little girl’s dream come true. It is truly a special story and demonstrates the best of Kennesaw State. Thanks, Coach Agnus and team. We are so very proud of what you do both on and off the court.

Go Owls!

Sincerely,

Sam Olens
President

Owls draft 8-year-old as honorary team member

Th e Kennesaw State women’s basketball team introduced its newest member during a signing ceremony inside the KSU Convocation Center. Eight-year-old Cate Zittel was invited by head coach Coach Agnus Berenato before signing a ceremonial letter that made her an honorary member of the team.

Scholarship support

Last year, Kennesaw State awarded $1.4 million in scholarship funding to more than 480 students, all made possible because of donors.

New Frontiers

The 11 students who recently returned from a pioneering, semester-long education abroad — “the World in 80 Days” — were part of a pioneering, semester-long education abroad — “the World in 80 Days” — were part of a new partnership between Kennesaw State and the World’s largest simulation, the world’s largest simulation, the world’s largest simulation, the world’s largest simulation.

Woven in ingenuity

A new partnership between Kennesaw State and Mohawk Industries, the world’s largest flooring manufacturer, has given engineering students an opportunity to improve the company’s automation processes.

February 2017

Atlanta Journal-Constitution

More universities show the way on food sustainability

Atlanta Business Chronicle

Atlanta college makes stop on national list

KSU Online Programs on national list

Dear Faculty, Staff, and Students:

My recent monthly update was a chance for me to let you in on some of the things that I have been hearing while also highlighting some of the stories from around campus that make us all proud. This month, I wanted to take this opportunity to update you on a few personnel updates, to share some stories about our faculty and staff, and to look forward to signing day and how we will celebrate our athletes.

First, I want to share an update about one of our KSU police officers, Rusty Midkiff. While on duty last weekend, Officer Midkiff assisted the Cobb County Police Department by partnering with Team IMPACT to help make a little girl’s dream come true. It is truly a special story and demonstrates the best of Kennesaw State. Thanks, Officer Midkiff, for your service.

Last week, I had the honor of participating in Law Enforcement Appreciation Day to recognize the hard work and dedication of the men and women who work to help keep us safe. It is, perhaps, fitting that I share a story with you about one of our KSU police officers, Rusty Midkiff. While on duty last weekend, Officer Midkiff assisted the Cobb County Police Department by partnering with Team IMPACT to help make a little girl’s dream come true. It is truly a special story and demonstrates the best of Kennesaw State. Thanks, Officer Midkiff, for your service.

Recently, I had the opportunity to follow up on my message to campus this week regarding the executive order on immigration. As I noted in my message on Monday, I understand that there are many questions, so know that we are closely monitoring this evolving situation, and we will continue to keep you updated.

On a slightly different note, please take a moment to read the story below about how our women’s basketball team and coach Agnus Berenato partnered with Team IMPACT to help make a little girl’s dream come true. It is truly a special story and demonstrates the best of Kennesaw State. Thanks, Coach Agnus and team. We are so very proud of what you do both on and off the court.

Go Owls!

Sincerely,

Sam Olens
President

Owls draft 8-year-old as honorary team member

Th e Kennesaw State women’s basketball team introduced its newest member during a signing ceremony inside the KSU Convocation Center. Eight-year-old Cate Zittel was invited by head coach Coach Agnus Berenato before signing a ceremonial letter that made her an honorary member of the team.

Scholarship support

Last year, Kennesaw State awarded $1.4 million in scholarship funding to more than 480 students, all made possible because of donors.

New Frontiers

The 11 students who recently returned from a pioneering, semester-long education abroad — “the World in 80 Days” — were part of a pioneering, semester-long education abroad — “the World in 80 Days” — were part of a new partnership between Kennesaw State and the World’s largest simulation, the world’s largest simulation, the world’s largest simulation.

Woven in ingenuity

A new partnership between Kennesaw State and Mohawk Industries, the world’s largest flooring manufacturer, has given engineering students an opportunity to improve the company’s automation processes.

February 2017

Atlanta Journal-Constitution

More universities show the way on food sustainability

Atlanta Business Chronicle

Atlanta college makes stop on national list

KSU Online Programs on national list

Dear Faculty, Staff, and Students:

My recent monthly update was a chance for me to let you in on some of the things that I have been hearing while also highlighting some of the stories from around campus that make us all proud. This month, I wanted to take this opportunity to update you on a few personnel updates, to share some stories about our faculty and staff, and to look forward to signing day and how we will celebrate our athletes.

First, I want to share an update about one of our KSU police officers, Rusty Midkiff. While on duty last weekend, Officer Midkiff assisted the Cobb County Police Department by partnering with Team IMPACT to help make a little girl’s dream come true. It is truly a special story and demonstrates the best of Kennesaw State. Thanks, Officer Midkiff, for your service.

Last week, I had the honor of participating in Law Enforcement Appreciation Day to recognize the hard work and dedication of the men and women who work to help keep us safe. It is, perhaps, fitting that I share a story with you about one of our KSU police officers, Rusty Midkiff. While on duty last weekend, Officer Midkiff assisted the Cobb County Police Department by partnering with Team IMPACT to help make a little girl’s dream come true. It is truly a special story and demonstrates the best of Kennesaw State. Thanks, Officer Midkiff, for your service.

Recently, I had the opportunity to follow up on my message to campus this week regarding the executive order on immigration. As I noted in my message on Monday, I understand that there are many questions, so know that we are closely monitoring this evolving situation, and we will continue to keep you updated.

On a slightly different note, please take a moment to read the story below about how our women’s basketball team and coach Agnus Berenato partnered with Team IMPACT to help make a little girl’s dream come true. It is truly a special story and demonstrates the best of Kennesaw State. Thanks, Coach Agnus and team. We are so very proud of what you do both on and off the court.

Go Owls!

Sincerely,

Sam Olens
President

Owls draft 8-year-old as honorary team member

Th e Kennesaw State women’s basketball team introduced its newest member during a signing ceremony inside the KSU Convocation Center. Eight-year-old Cate Zittel was invited by head coach Coach Agnus Berenato before signing a ceremonial letter that made her an honorary member of the team.

Scholarship support

Last year, Kennesaw State awarded $1.4 million in scholarship funding to more than 480 students, all made possible because of donors.

New Frontiers

The 11 students who recently returned from a pioneering, semester-long education abroad — “the World in 80 Days” — were part of a pioneering, semester-long education abroad — “the World in 80 Days” — were part of a new partnership between Kennesaw State and the World’s largest simulation, the world’s largest simulation, the world’s largest simulation.

Woven in ingenuity

A new partnership between Kennesaw State and Mohawk Industries, the world’s largest flooring manufacturer, has given engineering students an opportunity to improve the company’s automation processes.